

RELATED ORGANIZATIONS

The following organizations provide different types of information and services for those interested in various aspects of the American Civil War.

1. Greene County Archives

1126 Boonville, Springfield, MO 65802

ph. (417) 868—4021

<http://www.greenecountymo.org/web/Archives>

These archives provide access to the official records of Greene County from 1833 to the present, including records of civil and criminal court cases, probate court records, tax records, and similar materials.

2. Greene County Historical Society

P.O. Box 3466, Glenstone Station, Springfield, MO 65808

ph. (417) 881—6147

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~gcmohs>

A group concerned with the promotion and dissemination of information pertaining to Greene County history. Please write for more information.

3. The History Museum for Springfield-Greene County

City Hall Building, Third Floor, 830 Boonville,

Springfield, MO 65802

ph. (417) 864—1976

<http://www.springfieldhistorymuseum.org>

This museum provides permanent and rotating exhibits on local history in Springfield and Greene County. In addition, its archives are open to the public and contain thousands of historical books, documents, and photographs.

4. Ozarks Genealogical Society Library

534 West Catalpa

Springfield, MO 65807

ph. (417) 831—2773

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~ozarksgs>

This facility houses and provides public access to genealogical materials for southwest Missouri. Please write for free brochure and information.

5. The Library Center, Local History and Genealogy Department, Springfield-Greene County Public Library
4653 South Campbell, Springfield, MO 65802
ph. (417) 874—8110
<http://thelibrary.springfield.missouri.org>

Formerly known as the Shepard Room, this department is the local history and genealogical center for the Springfield-Greene County library system. It has information on Springfield, Greene County, the Ozarks, and Missouri history. It also has material of interest to Civil War enthusiasts, including information from the National Archives, official records, and more.

6. Wilson's Creek National Battlefield Foundation
P.O. Box 8163, Springfield, MO 65801
ph. (417) 864—3041
<http://www.wilsonscreek.com>

In cooperation with the National Park Service and Wilson's Creek National Battlefield, the Foundation seeks through a variety of means to encourage the full educational utilization and development of the cultural resources of Wilsons Creek National Battlefield.